Local Commuters Will Map Plans In Battle Over Greyhound Service

Joint Gathering On Incorporation May Be Conducted

Orinda may soon join some 3,000 communities throughout California that are studying the merits of incorporation.

That possibility and that staggering figure were mentioned at Monday night's meeting of the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee at Orinda Grammar School.

CHECK WITH LEAGUE

Chairman Bob Clough reported that the association's Board of Directors had checked with the League of California Cities as to who might be available to come to Orinda and explain problems of incorporation. Two points were learned:

1.—The University of California has top people who are qualified to discuss problems and who could come to Orinda.

2.—Some 3,000 communities in the state are currently making studies on or are questioning the merits of incorporation.

On motion of Horace Breed, the committee decided to recommend to the Board of Directors that it get a speaker from the university and that such a speaker's talk be made to a joint meeting of the board and the Civic Affairs Committee.

Home Dept. Will Meet Wednesday

First fall meeting of the Orinda Home Department will be held Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Benjamin F. Courant, 221 Las Espinal.

The subject will be "Your Fall Wardrobe" and will be conducted by Mrs. Mary Lerche of the University of California.

Cake and coffee will be served. All are invited to attend. The Orinda Home Department meets regularly the last Wednesday of every month.

Festival Has Art By Orinda's Kids

The Walnut Festival this weekend will have special interest for Orindans with the display of 23 original drawings and paintings by members of the Orinda Children's Art Center.

Since the Orinda Children's Art Center stresses originality and individuality in the children's art work, all of the pictures on display will be efforts created and executed by the children themselves — a display of their ideas transferred to paper, using a technique all their own.

Children's art groups from Lafayette and Walnut Creek will also have exhibits of their art work at the festival.

Orinda Masons Confer Third Degree Monday
Orinda Masonic Lodge U.D. F. & A. M. will confer the third degree next Monday night at 8, at its meeting at the Community Church School Building. Refreshments will be served.

In view of increase yearly of over $1,000,000 in assessed valuation since 1945 it appears reasonably certain assessed valuation of the fire district will be a little over $7,000,000 next year. On this basis the average additional rate to add to current tax rate to retire principal and pay interest will be .111—(.7800 divided by 7000).

(2) On the assumption $70,000 of the bonds are sold (Moraga Highway-Orchard Road estimate plus small reserve to equal $70,000) calculations below show additional tax rate needed to pay off principal and interest over a 20 year period.

$69,575 plus $61,655—grand total $131,230
Based on these estimates it appears $130,000 should be the minimum amount for the bond issue a 20-year period.

(1) On assumption entire bond issue is sold the calculations below show additional tax rate needed to pay off principal and interest over a 20 year period.

$130,000 divided by 20 equals $6,500 yearly payment, principal.
*2% of $130,000 equals $2,600, interest, first year. This will reduce $130 per year ($6,500 by 2%) so that the average interest payable over the 20 year period will be $1,300.

$6,500 plus $1,300 equals $7,800, average yearly payment to retire principal and pay interest.

Assessed valuation, 1950-51—$6,061,507.
*Using $6,000,000 as assessed valuation, each penny in the rate will produce $600 in taxes.
Average yearly payment to retire principal and pay interest divided by one penny in the tax rate equals tax rate needed to add to current tax rate in effect to retire principal and pay interest on $70,000 bonds.

$7,800 divided by .001 equals $7,800,000.

Bouquets, Gripes Are Both Welcome

(An Editorial)

Recently a half-dozen or so of our readers have by letter or in person told us they like this newspaper and think it is improving all the time.

We appreciate such comment because often we hear from our readers ONLY when we make an error or print something they don't agree with.

However, let us emphasize that we keenly welcome your comment—praise or criticism. Both are essential for the production of a good community newspaper. If you don't like something—let us hear from you. If we are missing important stories, tell us. If there is a feature you'd like to see, write or phone us.

Most important—if you have some news, no matter how large or small, please get it to us. Phone us... write us... stop us on the street.

If something "big" happens, please don't assume we know all about it. Frequently, we don't even know that it has occurred. With our very small staff it is impossible to "cover" every newsworthy event.

We depend on you. This is your newspaper. A large part of its success or failure depends on you.

Two more ways you can help: Tell our advertisers that you see their ads. Only through their support are we able to offer you a newspaper. This only requires a few seconds of your time.

Second, if you like the SUN, tell the new residents so they, too, will subscribe. Thank you.

Captain Sandford Sez:

I HAVE A TREMENDOUS REGARD for the U. S. Marines. In fact I would much rather be a buck private in the Marines than a captain of artillery.

ON LABOR DAY we took off for Petaluma Highland Gathering... bagpipe bands, individual pipers, Highland dancing, foot racing, jumping, tossing the saber, etc., and there, believe it or not, I had the privilege of seeing a bagpipe band composed of men in trousers... a part of the U. S. Army.

I talked to one of the pipers and he told me that there are two bagpipe bands in the U. S. Army. One is in Korea and the other, his unit, is stationed at the Presidio.

I told him that I had noticed that his band marched as the Scotch Highlanders do... 30-inch steps, with a slower swinging rhythm. I asked him if the troops following were taught to march to that rhythm. He did not know.

I then asked him if in battle their pipers would run among the infantry playing the charge as the Scotch Highlanders do. From the look of his eyes I do not think the proposition appealed to him very much, and he said he did not know.

THIS IS IN REPLY to a letter to the editor written by Mr. John L. Ferris of Walnut Creek regarding newspaper reporters and their usefulness in the battle zones in modern warfare.

The letter written by Mr. Ferris is a very good letter and is evidently written by one with more technical knowledge of the newspaper reporter's work than I have.

However, I have a considerable practical knowledge of the foot soldiers' angle in combat, for I took part in the many battles of the Canadian Infantry in World War I. The historical record of the job done by the First Canadian Division in action will remain for all time one of the highlights of warfare, and I never heard of or saw a news correspondent in action. They were not allowed there.

I remember during the South African War British troops were trying to capture a famous Boer general named General De Wet. British newspapers were full of elaborate sketches of the various traps which were being set for this wily and capable leader without success.

I think, if my memory serves me, the late General Kitchener took over and things began to happen. General De Wet was captured and hostilities were soon brought to an end.

CAMERA TOPICS

By T. T. Holden

Fine pictures call for equipment in good condition. A camera deserves the same care as a fine watch. Graflex Photo Contest prize-winner by Edith Worth, 1/25 sec. at f/8.

CLEAN LENS A MUST FOR GOOD PICTURES

A camera is only as good as its lens; and even the best lens loses much of its efficiency when it is dirty. Oily fingerprints, dust spots and smears on a lens can cause spotty exposure, fogged pictures and lost detail.

It's good practice every time you take your camera out for a picture making session to give the lens a quick cleaning and check it again before you put it away. The first step in cleaning a lens is to wipe it gently with a camel's hair brush or blow it off with a small air syringe. This will remove grit or other particles which might be ground into the lens. Then rub the surface gently with a piece of lens tissue or a clean soft lintless cloth. Do not use your handkerchief, necktie or just anything handy, or you may well scratch the delicate glass surface. There are several liquid lens cleaners recommended by camera manufacturers, but these should be used sparingly if at all. The liquid should always be applied to the cloth first, not directly on the lens. Care must be taken not to get cleaner on the cement which holds the lens elements together, for it may dissolve.

Do not take your lens apart for cleaning or other purposes. This is a job for an expert camera repairman and you may do irreparable damage if you try it yourself.

Along with frequent cleaning, always done carefully and gently, whenever you have your camera out, it is wise to be alert for salt crystals, blowing dust, and sand and other foreign bodies which might damage the delicate glass. Protect it with a case or lens cap whenever you are not shooting.

State Disaster Council to Study Road Bottleneck in This Area, Lagiss Told

On the "active file" of the California State Disaster Council, for consideration as the council's plans mature, is the problem of road bottlenecks of the Contra Costa County area.

This has been assured by Burton Washburn, executive secretary of the council, in a letter to Anthony G. Lagiss.

LETTER REFERRED "Your letter concerning suggestions concerning the road bottleneck problem of the Contra Costa County area has been referred to this office," Washburn wrote. "We are placing this matter on our active file for consideration as our plans mature."

"We appreciate your interest in this important matter and we wish to assure you that we are trying to cover every possible item in our civil defense planning."

GOVERNOR'S OFFICE

Washburn's letter followed acknowledgment from Governor Earl Warren's office of a communication from Lagiss to the governor on this problem. M. F. Small, departmental secretary, wrote Lagiss: "The governor has asked me to thank you for the patriotic interest in the welfare of California which you have demonstrated in writing concerning the provision of adequate roads 'of access to the military installations.'"

ACCESS TO PORTS

Lagiss' letter to the governor stated that the Naval Magazine at Port Chicago, Camp Stoneman, Embarkation Center at Pittsburg and the Naval Supply Depot in Stockton "are all without any more than"

County Bar Head Asks No. 3 'Yes'

Passage of Proposition 3 on the November ballot is urged by John F. Baldwin, Martinez attorney and chairman of the Contra Costa County Bar Association Speakers Committee. This proposition is a constitutional amendment providing for the reorganization of the lower courts of California (courts below the Superior Court).

Proposition 3 was prepared by the State Judicial Council, has been approved by the legislature and is endorsed by Governor Earl Warren, Baldwin stated. The measure has been endorsed by the Justices and Constables' Association of California, State Bar of California, County Supervisors Association of California, California State Sheriffs' Association, California District Attorneys' Association, California State Federation of Labor (AFL), California Congress of Industrial Organizations Council (CIO), California State Chamber of Commerce and many other organizations throughout the state.

Civilian Defense

Walnut Creek's civilian defense setup is expected to be thoroughly organized in the next two weeks according to Defense Director John Nejedly.

An important phase of the plans is that of participation by local doctors, with Dr. Arthur H. Beede in charge of medical services in the area.

Dr. Raymond Buck and Dr. C. Terrence Ring have been named chairman for the establishment, as soon as possible, of a block warden system. Auxiliary police members have now started receiving educational training, under National Guard direction.

In case of emergency, Walnut Creek Canning Company will be the first aid and administrative center.

Sure, Irish Hearts Smile—And No Wonder

Warning the cockles of the hearts of the numerous St. Mary's fans of Irish antecedents, an even dozen freshmen football prospects of Irish extraction registered at St. Mary's, including two promising T-quarterbacks.

Richard O'Sullivan, who supports 215 pounds on a 6 ft. 5 in. superstructure, and John McCool, with 155 pounds on a 5 ft. 10 in. frame, are the two outstanding signal callers. Other Irish backs include Dan Montgomery and Ed Mirch, quarterbacks; Don Driscoll, Charles Crotty, Tom O'Malley and Phil Monahan, halfbacks; Jim Moore, Dan Lahey, Pat Mirch and Frank Davis are line candidates.

Enrollment Keeps Ahead of Schools Construction Pace

Contra Costa County school population is still growing faster than schools can be built, a poll at the close of the first week of classes disclosed.

According to figures obtained by the office of County Superintendent B. O. Wilson, largest gains were noticed in Mt. Diablo Unified, Antioch, Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda, and Richmond areas. Overcrowding has been only partially relieved by new school construction, and double session is widespread.

Completion of new units in the near future, at both Contra Costa and Glencoe Schools of the Orinda District will, it is hoped, end double session now necessary in the overcrowded areas.

Lafayette District operates first and second grades on "shifts." According to Wilson's office, opening school week this year saw 435 students in the Lafayette Elementary District, as against 1,141 in the opening week last year; 887 in the Orinda Elementary District, against 737 last year; 1,054 in the Alcatraz Union High School District, as against 950 last year.

Servicemen May Get Court Aid On Debt Problem

Many veterans and draftees called to active duty have monthly obligations in excess of their service pay and are asking if they are to lose the property or merchandise they have partially paid for, J. W. Hammond, county veterans service officer, reports.

There is not as yet a general mortgagor on debts, Hammond stated, but these men are afforded some considerable protection by the law commonly known as the Soldiers and Sailors' Civil Relief Act, still in force.

Provisions of this act apply to all persons in the military service: (1) who may become defendants in court action, (2) who occupy a house for which the agreed rental does not exceed $80 per month who prior to entry into service have contracted to purchase real estate or personal property on the installment plan, (4) who may have taxes or assessments upon real property. Hammond states he has been informed that relief may be granted when such entry into service changes a man's financial status in such a way that he is unable to meet the former payments and that each case is to be judged on its merits by the court.

Diablo Schools Bond Election Set for Oct. 10

"Five Million for Five Cents" is the slogan adopted at a recent meeting of citizens of the Mt. Diablo Unified School District.

This State School Aid, Citizens' Committee, under general chairmanship of Charles F. Hutchins, Jr., was formed to acquaint electors with the issues to be decided in the election set for October 10. School Superintendent James W. Dent explained that an application for $4,900,000 from the $250,000,000 state bond issue, voted last November, is on file with state authorities and should be acted on shortly, but that approval of the district must also be secured before the funds can be made available.

Present bonded indebtedness of the district for elementary schools is $1,953,000, for which the tax rate is 35 cents per $100 assessed valuation. To obtain the additional $4,900,000 the tax rate must be increased to the legal limit of 40 cents per $100.

CHILD WELFARE JOB

The Contra Costa County Civil Service Commission announces an examination for child welfare service worker. Applications may be secured at Room 229, County Hall of Records, Martinez, and will be accepted until 5 p.m. September 29.

Defense Plan Calls For Volunteer Aid

President Truman sent Congress a comprehensive civilian defense plan this week which calls for the organization of a corps of trained experts and millions of volunteers. Under the plan civilian defenses would be brought down to the individual level. "Every person in every community" would be asked to help in the defense program.

LOCAL VOLUNTEERS

Block wardens, training in first aid and self protection, reserve police and firemen, rescue squads, radiation and germ and chemical warfare specialists, will play significant parts in our overall civilian defense setup.

To administer the whole program the plan would create a new agency, the Federal Civil Defense Administration, which would coordinate activities on the local, state and federal levels.

Each community or city would have a full-time civil defense director, an advisory council and specialists in charge of:

Evacuation, transportation, communication, health, emergency food, clothing and housing, law enforcement, fire fighting, protecting and restoring utilities, and auxiliaries like a civil air patrol and an air raid warning service.

The state would have experts and directors in the same categories as the communities, operating on a state level.

DEFENSE SCHOOLS

The plan also calls for: 1. Mobile defense teams that supplement the workers in a community that was hard hit.

2. Government schools to turn out trained civilian workers.

3. Mutual cooperation between the defense teams of neighboring communities which would aid each other in case of a severe attack.

NSRB BOOKLET

The civilian defense plan was worked out for the President by a committee of the National Security Resources Board (NSRB) headed by Paul J. Larsen, former atomic energy expert. The NSRB put the plan together in a 162-page booklet entitled "United States Civilian Defense."

Besides outlining a civilian defense organization the NSRB booklet also gives suggestions and procedures concerning the building of bomb proof shelters, how to evacuate a community, and how to take stock of the community's resources to provide for an atomic attack.

Ceremony Opens Seneca Reservoir

The East Bay Municipal Utility District held "open house" Tuesday at the site of the new 30,000,000 gallon Seneca Reservoir in East Oakland. The occasion was the dedication ceremony for the big basin, third largest in the district's water distribution system.

The program included brief addresses by Thomas S. Nelson, district director, and John W. McFarland, general manager of the district.

Mrs. Louis J. Bruener, wife of the president of the district's Board of Directors, opened the valve controlling the sluice gates in the 30-foot inlet-outlet tower, thereby releasing water from the Upper San Leandro Filter Plant into the basin, at the rate of nearly 20,000,000 gallons per day.

The reservoir is 600 feet long by 445 feet wide, and approximately 25 feet in depth. Surface area when full will be approximately five acres. Cost of the entire project, which was made necessary by the rapid growth of the East Oakland-San Leandro area, was over $1,000,000.

Red Cross Asks Gray Ladies to Be Active Again

Mt. Diablo Chapter, American Red Cross, urges all former Gray Ladies to become active again.

New residents who were formerly Gray Ladies, as well as those from this chapter, are urged to contact Mrs. Nicholas Taliaferro, chairman of Gray Ladies, Walnut Creek 2456, or Mrs. Mildred Culbertson, executive secretary, Walnut Creek 2647, as soon as possible.

Used playing cards and used pocket editions of light fiction are requested for use by the military. Take all you can spare to the chapter house, 1607 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, as soon as possible, so this request can be filled.

ENGINEERING JOBS

The East Bay Municipal Utility District announces civil service examinations for three civil engineering positions with starting salaries from $316 to $439 per month—association civil engineer, assistant civil engineer and junior engineer—will be held October 6. Closing date for filing applications is September 28.

Martinez Merry-Go-Round

District Tax Rates Listed, Relief Is Cut, East Campus Seeks Federal Help

Merry or not, this first item in this week's Martinez Merry-Go-Round concerns the fact that County Auditor-Controller D. M. Teeter has compiled the 1953 tax rates for the Board of Supervisors for the different political subdivisions of the county.

The long list includes the following details of local interest, with property tax requirements and rates in that order: Under county fire districts—Orinda, $54,741.94, 89 1/2 cents; fire districts—Lafayette, $62,804.94, 7 cents; cemetery districts—Alamo Lafayette, $7,072.97, 3 cents; special districts—Lafayette Fire, $5,898.27, 37 cents; sanitary districts—Central Contra Costa $89,403.94, 29 cent water districts—Lafayette, $1,000 4 cents; Orinda, $11,625, 14.5 cent.

ELIEF OUT

Starting October 1, families of employees in Contra Costa County will be granted relief only on an emergency basis.

This has been decided by the board of Supervisors, acting on suggestion of William G. Golden, Social Service Department director. "There is now little reason for an able-bodied man to be out of work," Golden declared, reviewing rapid growth in employment throughout the Bay Area since the outbreak of the Korean fighting.

Golden reported to the board that August general assistance cost in this county dropped to $44.06 from July's $64.130. In August, 1949, the cost was $117,205, he said.

EAST CAMPUS PLANS

Superintendent Drummond McCunn of the Contra Costa Junior College District has been authorized by the district's trustees to sign agreements with the Housing and Home Finance Agency of the federal government to obtain two allocations for planning buildings and grounds of the East Campus.

One would be for $72,000, for architect's services, and the other would be for $9,000, for a site survey.

HOME CONSTRUCTION

Contra Costa County was second in the Bay Area construction of new dwelling units in the record month of July, according to Max D. Kossoris, regional director of the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. Lameda County was first—1,079 units, up 158 from June. Contra Costa's score was 925, up 95 from June.

Total for the area in July was 700 non-farm units.

MOTION BY CUMMINGS

Wheels have started rolling for the first time for the Mountain Boulevard Freeway—1.4 miles from Broadway Terrace to Bruns Drive, provide a freeway from Broadway to Moraga Avenue. The plan is for eventual extension of the modernized highway system so as to skirt the hill range all the way to San Leandro.

Joint Highway District 26 recently okayed an $821,187 contract with the Frederickson and Watson Construction Company of Oakland.

In the district board's approval of an Oakland meeting, Jack Cummings made the motion authorizing Chairman Thomas E. Caldecott to proceed with arrangements.

"What's this got to do with Martinez?" you ask. Well, Jack Cummings, besides being a member of Joint Highway District 26, is a Contra Costa County supervisor, representing our area.

HOUSING AGREEMENT

Chairman W. J. Buchanan of the Board of Supervisors has signed a cooperation agreement with the Contra Costa Housing Authority for the construction of 750 low-rent housing units over a six year period.

Gerould Gill, chairman of the Board of Commissioners of the Housing Authority, signed for the Authority.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:

After reading the article in last week's SUN in which the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce special committee condemned the Lafayette Post Office and its services so severely, I have felt that I must say a word.

Having been served by the Lafayette Post Office for the past nine years in an efficient and courteous manner, I feel that I have no other way to thank them than to say that they have always in all that time served me well. In fact, they have many times delivered a letter to me when I wondered how it could have reached me if it had not been for extra effort on their part.

Of course, I speak as an individual, not a business concern, but I feel that I would like others to know that I have been served well by the Lafayette Post Office for nine years.

Sincerely,
MILDRED S. LLOYD

Scout Theater Party Oct. 11th, 12th

Boy Scouts of Troop 204 are already busy selling tickets for their annual Theater Party to be held at the Park Theater Wednesday and Thursday evenings, October 11 and 12. The affair is sponsored by the troop in order to raise funds for their activities during the next year.

Through the courtesy of the management of the Park Theater October 11 and 12 have been set aside for the benefit of the scouts. They will sell the tickets at the regular price of 70 cents. The movie features include "The Outriders" in technicolor and Abbott and Costello in "The Foreign Legion."

Members of Troop 204 will be covering all of Lafayette in their sales campaign, as much interest has been stimulated in the selling of tickets by the many prizes offered to the boys by members of the troop committee. There will be individual prizes for boys selling the most tickets and also for the patrols that sold in the highest number of tickets that turn, according to Walter Weidlin, chairman for the party.

Big Jump in Books, Readers at Library

A gain of 7,985 books lent for home use by Lafayette Branch of the County Library during the 1949-50 year, over those borrowed the previous corresponding period indicates the importance of the library in community life.

Juvenile books showed the greatest increase, with 13,126 books, a gain of 50 per cent, borrowed by the younger set. There were 12,141 novels taken from the library by card holders, an increase of 20 per cent, and 5,802 volumes of general reading, 27 per cent more than the previous year.

MAGAZINES

Thirteen per cent increase in the volume of magazine withdrawal by patrons brought the annual figure to 1,589.

Over-all gain in number of books loaned was 32 per cent.

On July 1, 1949, there were 4,529 books in the library to satisfy the reading tastes of the 21,267 persons who held cards. These figures increased through the year, with 5,293 volumes on the shelves on June 30, 1950, and 1,481 card holders.

With 764 additional volumes on the shelves on June 30 this year, indicating a gain of 16 per cent in the reading matter made available to residents through Lafayette Library, there was a gain of 214 new card holders, an increase of 17 per cent.

SPECIAL REQUESTS

Persons requesting special volumes accounted for 655 books forwarded from the county office, with 62 special requests filled by the state library.

The local branch of the County Library is located on the east side of Moraga Road, adjacent to Lafayette Grammar School grounds.

25,000 Persons At County Fair

The Contra Costa County Fair closed one of the most successful festivals in its history Sunday. The four-day show was witnessed by more than 25,000 persons.

Special feature of the closing day was the Centennial Parade, with more than 100 East Bay units participating.

YW Benefit Tea Given Tomorrow

Though fashions are the focus, the purpose is more serious when the Oakland YWCA sponsors its benefit Fashion-Tea tomorrow at the Blue Triangle Club, 2332 Harrison Street, Oakland.

Aiming to augment its youth activity fund, now operating in the red because young people's participation exceeds present budget allowances, volunteers from this area are busy assisting with arrangements for an event which will feature fall styles for all ages.

In the Lafayette-Orinda area, Mrs. Maynard Buehler of 6 Great Oak Circle, Orinda, is taking reservations for individuals or tables at $1.50 per ticket.

Vet Farm & Home Aid at New High

A total of 892 veterans were added to the list of participants in the Farm and Home Purchase program during the month, bringing to more than 43,000 the number of ex-servicemen of both World Wars who have been under contract since the plan was established 29 years ago.

Rain Stays Away, So Barbecue's OK

At first it looked like a barbecue in the rain, but last Saturday turned out to be a wonderful evening for a barbecue at the Spencer Lehmans on Moraga Boulevard.

The affair was in honor of a ride club which goes from Lafayette to Emeryville. The riders are Shell Development employees and the occasion was especially held so the wives could meet the men their husbands drove to work with.

Guests included the Dave L. Yabroffs, Thirston Skeis, William Benjamins, Warren Armstrongs and the Robert Larsons.

After the barbecue a word game was played, which consisted of filling in 25 squares with different letters given by each player in turn, trying to make as many words as possible using no letter twice in count. Each letter counted one, and it was rumored that one person got as high as a 39 count.

Gay 20's Theme At Box Social Wednesday Night

The dress and activities of the "Gay Twenties" will rule at Lafayette Forum Garden Section's old-fashioned box social and variety show to be given at Town Hall next Wednesday night.

Forum members, their husbands and other guests have been asked to attend in costumes reminiscent of those worn by school children of the twenties, and a decorated box supper is to be brought by each couple. Bob Rooney, well known for his master of ceremony roles at many East Bay affairs, will serve as auctioneer for the supper boxes. Several prizes are to be awarded for the most gaily decorated containers.

Adrienne Sowers, as teacher, will preside over the classroom which will provide several surprise variety features to add to the festivity. Mr. and Mrs. David Calderon are providing a group of folk dancers of the area, who will demonstrate some of their specialty numbers to make the "old fashioned social" a success.

'No Delay for Added Benefits'

"There will be no delay in getting out the increased insurance benefit payments provided by the amended Social Security Act" declares Victor C. Broome, manager of the Oakland social security office.

Broome returned from a five-day conference in Sacramento held in connection with the amended act, signed into law by President Truman.

"At the conference, I learned that the area offices have been working overtime to compute the increased amounts of payment and are ready now to get out the higher benefit checks," said Broome. Under a provision of the new law, increased payments will go to everyone now receiving old-age or survivors insurance payments. This was effective September 1.

Westival Rally Next Thursday Night

You have a date next Thursday, September 28, at 2:30, in the Town Hall, to join in the big Westival Rally, which Lafayette P.T.A. is sponsoring at this first regular meeting of the school year.

According to Mrs. R. P. Tolles, new president, the meeting will be given over almost entirely to the Westival. The Westival program will be unfolded (verbally) in all its glory by Mrs. J. Wayland Barnett, general chairman.

A big feature of the afternoon will be a skit written by Wilma Conners, Lafayette Playshop member, depicting what a bunch of women find unusual and exciting within the walls of "The Country Store," one of the most interesting Westival booths this year.

And hot off the griddle is Lafayette P.T.A.'s precious Cook Book, which will have its official unveiling at this meeting. There has been much conjecture as to which name was selected by the judges to grace the cover of this super cook book. Conjecture will end as of the 28th, when the winning title is announced and the lucky person presented with the "first copy."

This book contains 240 of the most prized hand-written recipes of 240 local people, each cleverly illustrated by artist P.T.A. member, Mrs. Donald D. Johnson of Happy Valley. Prominent restaurants along Diablo strip have also contributed choice recipes. This book will have special appeal for residents of this area as well as for lovers of novel recipe collections.

Family Relations, Child Psychology Course Offered

Parents of sixth, seventh and eighth grade students in Lafayette schools are anticipating the opportunity to learn much that is helpful from a course on "Child Psychology and Family Relations."

Dr. Edith Bryan, who was public health instructor at the University of California for 16 years, as well as consulting psychologist and instructor of parent education throughout the state, will conduct the course.

BEGIN OCT. 4
Classes will begin October 4 and will meet every Wednesday from 1:15 to 3:15 in the Community Church.

Mrs. Earl M. Creager, who is P.T.A. chairman of adult education, has undertaken to contact all parents of children in the upper three grades, with 100 per cent attendance as her goal. Expected attendance should be high, with an enrollment of over 300 students in these grades.

REPLACE SEX CLASSES
The course will take the place of former sex education classes offered in the seventh and eighth grades. Students will be required to attend some of the later meetings with their mothers.

Anyone interested in the lectures may enroll for the usual $1 fee, even though she has no children in the three upper grades.

Helping Mrs. Creager are the Mesdames Rade Sadler, J. W. Barnett, E. H. Huebner, J. F. Tusher, F. Seuberg, Ann Westfall, T. G. Nordlund, John F. Funk, William F. Thomas, E. W. Caswell, E. Kloe, E. Greub, Teddy Gardner and H. W. Martin.

Trying to escape the torrid heat, the flying party did not leave the Sacramento Airport until after 10 p.m., but it was still 100 degrees at 3,000 feet. However, Mrs. Musser said she did not mind that with an ice bag on her bee-stung nose!

Johnson, Malott Win Election to Board Of Sanitary District; Cornwall Third

Voters of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District on Monday re-elected Elliott Johnson of Lafayette and elected W. M. Malott of Pleasant Hill to the district board for four-year terms.

Neill C. Cornwall, of Lafayette, incumbent, ran third in the election, while Allison Miller of Lafayette was fourth and John O. Matthias of Walnut Creek was fifth.

1,098 BALLOTS

The 1,098 ballots cast at six polling places gave the five candidates the following tallies, according to unofficial returns:

Johnson, 645; Malott, 593; Cornwall, 342; Miller, 236; Matthias, 221.

One write-in vote for John Irving of Walnut Creek, for director, was cast in Precinct 2 (Walnut Creek).

LEADS IN 4 PRECINCTS

In replacing Cornwall on the Board of Directors, Malott was No. 1 man in four of the six precincts. However, Johnson was overwhelmingly first in Precinct No. 4 (Lafayette), where Cornwall was second, Miller third and Malott fourth. (See separate tabulation of votes by precinct.)

5 ABSENTEE BALLOTS

According to Col. H. M. Smitten, secretary of the board, the two victorious candidates will be sworn in after all absentee ballots (there was a total of five) have come in and the board has officially canvassed the votes.

He said it was possible this might take place at last night's adjourned session but that it was more likely to occur at the October 5 meeting, unless a special meeting is called before then.

Also elected Monday, by 120 write-in votes, was John Irving as district assessor for a two-year term. Although the election notice had specified voting for this office along with voting for two directors, no one had filed for the post. The county assessment roll is used by the Sanitary District. Frank Marshall of Walnut Creek has been assessor the past four years. Twenty-nine other persons, some of them district employees, received write-in votes for assessor ranging from 1 to 3.

Pirro and Troupe Set for Westfall

For the next eight days the Lafayette PTA suggests, "Don't say 'Good Morning' or 'How do you do?' when you meet a friend. Say, 'Hi, Pardon.' That's so as to get in the feel of the Westfall (which will be here September 30 on the Lafayette Grammar School grounds).

Westfall means western carnival, and when you hear western you immediately think of jeans, plaid shirt, neckerchief, cowboy hat and pistol (cap variety in this case, please).

WESTERN STYLE

Everyone is going to the Westfall in good old western style. If you want to be fancy or different in your dress—go right ahead—perfectly alright—just so it's western.

By the way, pardon, a real treat is in store for you young cowpunchers at Lafayette's big, gigantic, colossal Westfall come September 30.

Yessiree, pal—specially for you a-fella named Pat Patterson is a-buzzin' a trail through the mess-quite and sagebrush country between Los Angeles and Lafayette and is a-comin' all the way up here for just that one day for your special benefit. Yes, sir—and he's a bringin' with him the dandiest bunch of little fellers that you ever did see.

LITTLE BUT PEPPY

They're little all right, and we should explain right now that Patterson's friends are puppets and that they are going to put on three of the best dog-and-puppet shows that you have ever seen.

Wal, do you know that 10 film of these here puppets are right now being used on a big television show in the east called "The Small Fry Show"? And they've made albums of records, too, for Columbia Broadcasting.

LEADING MAN

The leadin' man of this here troupe is called "Pirro," and he's a different sort of clown from what you're used to seeing at the circus.

In the first place he's always happy and friendly just like you boys and girls had order be, but he's bashful as all get-out along with being just awfully curious.

The things that happen to him from being too curious are—well, you wait and see the show. His friends are good for plenty of laughs, too. They are the Jitterbug Kids, Doorknob Jones (a Negro) and Pretzel the dog.

WRITES OWN STORY

Patterson, who believes that "it is the story which makes a puppet show—not the mechanics of working them," writes all his own material, and is currently taking post-graduate work at UCLA, specializing in the field of television and visual education with a goal of a coast-to-coast television show in the near future.

Mrs. Jack Hardy (Laf. 2031), is chairman for this event.

Here's Vote by Precincts

Here is the precinct-by-precinct vote in Monday's election of two Sanitary District directors, according to unofficial returns:

Precincts	1 (Pleasant Hill)	2 (Walnut Creek)	3 (Saratoga)	4 (Lafayette)	5 (Orinda)	6 (Moraga)	Total
Johnson	64	126	32	306	98	19	645
Malott	170	160	42	100	105	16	593
Cornwall	18	76	21	141	84	2	342
Miller	14	33	13	115	56	5	236
Matthias	33	80	11	65	32	0	221
Ballots cast	186	244	62	386	196	24	1,098

Write-In Elects Irving Assessor Over 29 Others

Surprise phase of Monday's Sanitary District election was the 162 write-in votes cast for 30 persons for district assessor for a two-year term. Although this post had been specified in the official election notice, no one filed for it.

John Irving of Walnut Creek was overwhelmingly elected by 120 votes, according to unofficial returns. The 29 others received votes ranging from 1 to 3. Some of the write-in recipients are district employees.

Write-in votes were cast in all precincts except No. 6 (Moraga). Frank Marshall of Walnut Creek has served as district assessor the past four years. The district uses the county assessment roll.

In addition to Irving, those who received more than one vote were: William Dietrich, 3; Stanford Perry, 3; George Brokke, 2; Claude McPhee, 2; John O. Matthias, 3; Ruth Stow, 2; W. M. Malott, 3; Marshall, 3.

The others, one vote each, were Bjork, Ronald Howard, Alfred Stone, Andrew MacComa, Dar O'Neill, Lucille Adams, G. H. Cock, Albert E. Richards, Vernon Patterson, C. A. Karling, Roger Souza, Harold Furst, Elliott Johnson, Herbert Martin, Fred Peglis, Charles Neuman, Victor B. Beauchamp, Ralph Wilson, Paul Vashell.

Band Underway at Lafayette School

Off to a running start this week was the new idea of instrumental music for Lafayette Grammar School, with over 50 "eager beavers" ready and "arin' to blow." It remains but to provide each with an instrument and then all he has to do is learn to play it.

Oscar Busch of Acalanes High School meets with the group three mornings a week at Town Hall. An arrangement is being made with various music houses to provide a rental-purchase plan whereby any student can rent an instrument for three months until his real interest is determined. Then he may buy the instrument if he so decides.

A group of 15 students who began work last year are already busy playing "tunes."

Move to Orinda

Mr. and Mrs. Standish Massie have moved from their Walnut Creek residence to a new home on Moraga Boulevard in Orinda.

Girl Scout Leader Confab Monday

In announcing the Mt. Diablo Area Girl Scout Council Conference and Skills Workshop to be held at Lafayette Town Hall Monday, Mrs. Lolita Bumgarner, training chairman, said:

"There is a place in Scouting for every adult and we hope through this conference to help them find what it is."

FULL PROGRAM

The all-day conference will start at 10 a.m. and continue until 3:30 p.m. A full program has been planned covering every phase of Girl Scouting, by Mrs. Grace Roberts and her program committee.

Those attending the conference have been asked to bring their lunch. Free coffee will be served, and it is hoped that every interested woman in the Diablo Valley Area will attend.

DISCUSSION GROUPS

Mrs. Bumgarner will welcome those present. After introduction of the council president, Ruth Pape, and the council executive secretary, Marion Conklin, and an explanation of their jobs, several discussion groups will be conducted. Subjects covered will include:

Troop committees, senior scouting, troop finance, "Where do I belong in Scouting?" and seventh and eighth grade leaders.

GIRL SCOUT MOVIE

Skills and workshop phases of the program, to be given in the afternoon, will include puppets, first aid, stenciling, birds, stars, trail signs, outdoor cooking, a Girl Scout movie, basketry and pottery.

Also in the afternoon, three speakers from the Walnut Creek Toastmasters will discuss "How to Make a Speech and Like It."

(Editor's note: In last week's SUN, the Girl Scout leadership conference was erroneously reported as scheduled for last Monday.)

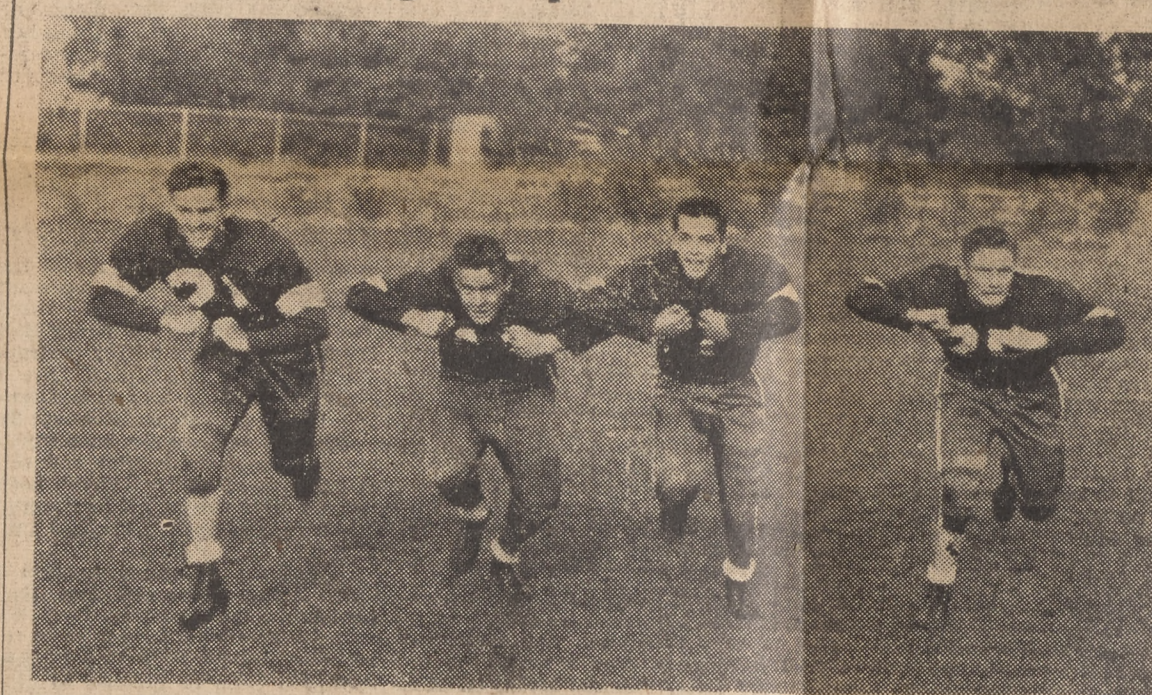

Start Orchestra, Band at Schools

Promising start was made this week on the new idea of instrumental music for Orinda and Glendora schools, with over 80 students at Orinda and 30 at Glendora ready to participate.

Miss Charmaine Barr of Orinda School and Oscar Busch of Acalanes High School will meet with the various groups every Tuesday and Thursday morning. Miss Barr will have charge of the orchestra and Busch will have the band.

Arrangement is being made with various music houses to provide a rental-purchase plan whereby any student can rent an instrument for three months until his real interest is determined.

Kickoff Tonight Opens New Don Season

KING FOOTBALL mounts his throne tonight when, with an 8 o'clock kickoff, the Acalanes Dons meet El Cerrito at the Dons' field. These ferocious-looking Dons will give opponents plenty of trouble, according to Coach Erwin Mattson. Left to right, they are: Bob Winklenbach, Vern Osborne, Joie Pearson and Ed Grueb. The coach says they'll see plenty of action.

Acalanes Board Takes High Limit On Bus Insurance

Acting on the policy that protection and public welfare are paramount, the Acalanes School Board has taken a high limit of insurance coverage on its operation of the 12 school buses it recently purchased.

At its meeting last week the board also approved purchase of a grand piano for the music department. Dr. Ralph Hall was named as a delegate to the State School Trustees Association meeting in San Diego October 2, 3 and 4.

The trustees' association will meet in joint session October 5 with a convention of state school superintendents who are meeting in San Diego October 4, 5 and 6. District Superintendent Neil M. Parson will represent Acalanes at the superintendents' conference.

More Than 700 In Adult School

More than 700 people have signed up in the Acalanes Adult School according to Dr. Ralph Hall, adult director. Enrollment in the classes has already been closed because of the heavy early turnout.

Waiting lists for classes in cabinet shop, tailoring, lamp shade drawing, beginning sewing are being drawn up. Because of the popularity of beginning folk dancing a new class is being formed, to meet Wednesday nights. Folk Dancing II, or regularly scheduled for Wednesdays will be combined with the Tuesday folk dancing class.

New classes in bookkeeping, shorthand, photography, landscape gardening, public speaking, rump-making and millinery are being organized.

Persons interested in the adult sessions may call Stewart at the school Monday through Thursday 7 to 10 p.m.

El Cerrito Has Edge Over Dons

The Acalanes Dons take to the gridiron for the initial game of the 1950 season tonight when El Cerrito brings its warriors to town for the acid test.

The Dons lost 32 of the 35 who suited up last year.

FOUR WHO RETURN

Joie Pearson, Rod Rainer, Ed Grueb and Richard Osmundsen are the four who suited up for the second consecutive year.

Pearson and Grueb appear to have won starting spots at left half and fullback, respectively, while Rainer is set to fill in at half or fullback. Osmundsen is an even bet to do the punting chores as well as to see duty at right half.

VARIES DAILY

The potential starting lineup varies from day to day as workouts bring to light strengths as well as weaknesses of various players.

Bill Weber, a senior, and Art Siler, a junior, hold a slight edge at the end spots, with a couple of juniors, Big Bob Borghesani and John Bowron, showing to advantage at the tackle positions.

Richard Gray has a battle on his hands for starting honors with a sophomore lad, Andy Monsen.

EDGE ON OFFENSE

Two more juniors hold the edge on offense—Jerry Price and Buzz Williams.

In the backfield, seniors Vern Osborne and Gen Green rate as a toss-up at quarterback.

Bob Kleckner, another junior looks better each day, and has been at his best in passing drills.

GRUEB AT FULLBACK
Eddy Grueb is the sole junior among the starting backs, being listed as the fullback for the opening kickoff.

Joie Pearson rates the call at left half, with Ed Broome and Al Culp in hot pursuit. Joie and Ed are seniors, while Al lists as a third year man.

FROM BERKELEY

Bob Winklenbach is a transfer from St. Mary's High of Berkeley and appears to be set at right half. Bob is a senior, and his main competition comes from Dick Fey and Roger Linn, another couple of juniors.

Danell Crossman is an end who is not far off first string, with John Daniels also up there, along with Jerry Henderson, a promising sophomore.

GUARD SPOTS

Renville Hawkins, Gary DeAngis and Bill Ives will see action in guard spots, while Bob Ostrom and Jim Jacobus bolster the tackle strength. Bob Stewart and Art Bacon are guards who will also get in game time. Bob Wallis will get his experience in the center position.

Bob Freitas, Bob Kleckner, Rod Rainer, Alan Moresi and Ken Murray will be in the reserve backfield, with Owen Babcock filling in at end.

Plans call for the using of as many players as feasible in order to get a line on what each can do when the chips are down.

SLIGHT FAVORITE

El Cerrito rates a slight favorite due to a few more returning veterans. The game will go a long way toward determining the success of the 1950 edition of Acalanes Dons.

Kickoff time is 8 p.m. sharp, under the lights of Acalanes Memorial Field.

ALBANY NEXT WEEK
Next Friday night, the 29th, the Dons play Albany here in another 8 p.m. game.

Craig Orlich, former Acalanes line coach, is now head Albany mentor.

Larmer May Be Frosh Fullback At Stanford U.

Pete Larmer of Lafayette, graduate of Acalanes High School, is rated as "among those expected to make strong bids for regular positions" on the freshman football team at Stanford University.

That's what Bob Ghilotti, yearling grid mentor at Stanford, thinks of the 17-year-old, 190-pound, 5-foot-11 Pete, who is trying out for fullback.

Young Larmer was one of some 80 candidates for the 1950 frosh team who reported to Ghilotti.

West Campus Grid Schedule

Sept. 22, College of Marin; Sept. 30, Monte Junior College, Richmond; Oct. 7, Martinez Alumni Club, Martinez; Oct. 14, San Francisco State Junior Varsity, El Cerrito; Oct. 21, Stoneman, Richmond; Oct. 28, Alameda Naval Air Station, El Cerrito; Nov. 4, Lassen Junior College, Susanville; Nov. 11, Napa Junior College, El Cerrito.

Note: All home games tentatively scheduled for 8 p.m. at the Richmond Union High School field or at the El Cerrito High Memorial Field.

Acalanes Visited By Varied Groups

Several groups from as far off as Scandinavia visited the Acalanes campus during the summer. Acalanes has achieved world-wide fame as a pioneer in school buildings design.

Swedish architects, representatives from the Seattle schools, several architectural firms and students from Texas A & M College of Architecture were among those who paid visits to the campus.

Ol' Prof, Perched on Limb, Predicts

By COACH ERWIN MATTSON
The old professor is back on the scene, all set to consult the stars and work out his formula for predicting the 1950 football results.

The Coast Conference appears to be a wide open race, with the USC Trojans, Stanford Indians and Washington Huskies top favorites, and with Cal as the dark horse.

BLUE-GOLD POWERHOUSE
On the basis of what I have seen to date, the fans will see another powerhouse representing the Blue and Gold, Pappy Waldorf and company have done another fine job and will be tough to beat.

On that basis it's Cal over Santa Clara 20-7.

UCLA appears to be a little more ready than Oregon and should win 20-13.

PICKS MICHIGAN STATE
Oregon State drops one to Michigan 13-7, while College of Pacific appears to be rough and to have too many reserves for a game but undermanned Gael eleven.

COP 26 - St. Mary's 6.
Stanford starts strong to whip San Jose 20-7, while Washington warms up with Kansas State 33-0. Washington State is not too strong but the opposition, Utah State, goes down 13-7.

HIGH SCHOOL RACE
In the local high school circles, the County race appears, like the Coast Conference, to be wide open. I like Pittsburg, with Diablo and Antioch not too far behind. Alhambra and Crockett appear to be at their best in several years.

GREEN DONS

The Acalanes Dons field a green but willing eleven loaded with lower classmen, which bids well for the future.

Picks for the week are: Crockett 13 - St. Vincent's of Vallejo, 7; Pittsburg 20 - Monterey, 6; Alhambra 20 - Tracy, 13; Diablo 20 - Analy of Sebastopol, 7; Acalanes and El Cerrito take a toss-up, 13-13.

MORE PREDICTIONS

Just to raise the old professor's average:
It's the Chicago Bears over the 49ers, who played a bangup game last week but just don't have the horses for the job.

And it's Contra Costa Junior College over Marin, 27 to 13.

Annual Walnut Festival Opens Tonight; Colorful Events Pack 3 Days of Fun

MORAGA-CANYON CUB Pack 57 has put in a busy summer.

Moraga Den 2 summer's project has been the construction of a relief map depicting the country the Donner Party traversed. The Cubs used plaster of paris to model the mountains, mirrors to represent Donner and Tahoe Lakes, sifted sand to reproduce the Great Salt Desert and another mirror portrayed the Great Salt Lake. Den 2 plans to exhibit its map at the Canyon Circus-Bazaar on October 21. Canyon Den 1 has also been working on objects to exhibit and sell at the bazaar. They have been making ash trays, pencil trees, scrapbooks, shoe scrapers and other handcraft.

New Cubs welcomed to Den 1 were Claude Seeds and Tim Blas-kovich.

Pack 57's committeemen meet tonight at the home of Den Mother Mrs. Bill Ross in Moraga to plan activities for the forthcoming year.

FIRST MEETING for the new school year of the Canyon Women's Club was held at the Canyon School September 14. Presided over by President Pauline King, the members accomplished much in the way of plans for the forthcoming bazaar and the Canyon school children's milk fund. Four new members were welcomed.

The club, organized by the Canyon women solely for the betterment of the school, will hold its annual Fall Bazaar on Saturday night, October 21, at the Canyon Redwood Inn Hall. The bazaar this year will be in the circus motif, complete with sideshows.

In addition, there will be an art display of the talents of artists residing in Canyon, some of whom have won both state and national honors. A cook book, made up from favorite recipes of Canyon people, will be on sale.

A bazaar committee was appointed: Mrs. Robert O'Neil, Mrs. Pauline King, Mrs. John Shally, with representatives from each of the youth organizations asked to attend committee meetings.

Refreshments were served by Hostesses Mrs. Vi Compher and Mrs. Paul Foster.

Members were reminded that dues for the new year were payable. Tentative plans were made for future programs to be provided by section chairmen. Mrs. Marguerite Cornwall, finance committee chairman, will be in charge of the October program, according to Mrs. Dorothy Ter Haar, president.

Mrs. Ter Haar, Mrs. Helen Haines, and Mrs. Margot Holland will attend the quarterly conference of District, Business and Professional Women's Clubs to be held at Asilomar tomorrow and Sunday and will report on the session at the next meeting of the local club.

Thank Wisemans For Radio Gifts To Oak Knoll Vets

Appreciation was expressed last week, through Mrs. Doris Cosma, a Red Cross Gray Lady who has been active at Oak Knoll Veterans Hospital in Oakland, for the recent donation of four used console radios to the wards, the gift of Hy and Sam Wiseman of Wiseman's.

Mrs. Cosma reported the sets were in beautiful condition and were most welcome to the veterans in the hospital, many of whom are casualties from the Korean battlefront.

The Wiseman brothers have just offered two more sets to the hospital, according to Mrs. Cosma, who stressed the appreciation with which they would be received.

Lowes Befriend Sailor Called to Duty

When Dale K. Macfarlane, 26, of Stockton reported for active duty in the Navy last Friday, he carried with him a warmth for an Orinda couple who had befriended him.

Dale, who served four years in World War II, during which he was wounded, remained in the Naval Reserve after the war. A couple of weeks ago, from Stockton, he phoned Mr. and Mrs. Maynard E. Lowe of 25 Brookside Road that he had been notified to report for active duty at 4 p.m. last Friday, in San Francisco.

He did not know what to do with his personal belongings. Unmarried, he lived in a two-room apartment in Stockton. Shortly after World War II Lowe had helped him obtain employment in a Stockton station-ery store, and he had been in touch with the Lowes ever since.

The Lowes told him they'd take care of his belongings — furniture, books, refrigerator, stove, clothes — while he'd be away. The articles were brought to their home, and they stored most of it in their rum-pus room. The stove and bed were placed in the garage. Dale stayed at their home part of last week and arranged the items as neatly as he could.

Last Friday, before he reported for duty, Mrs. Lowe took Dale to San Francisco for a sight-seeing trip and for lunch at Fisherman's Wharf.

In our neighborhoods, please drive carefully. How fast can you stop if a child runs into the street in front of your car?

EBMUD'S Annual Report Shows Little Over 1% Increase in Income, Expenses

In the face of substantial population growth in the East Bay, requiring expansion and replacement of water system facilities, and in direct contrast to general inflationary price and cost of living increases during the past year, operating expenses of the East Bay Municipal Utility District have remained substantially unchanged, according to an announcement today by Louis J. Breuner, president of the district's Board of Directors.

The announcement was made in conjunction with the release of the district's annual financial statement for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1949.

DAILY CONSUMPTION
Daily average consumption of water by the district's 900,000 residents for the past fiscal year exceeded 109,000,000 gallons, a 142 per cent increase above the 45 million gallons per day average in 1939-40. During the past year, operating income, including water, power and miscellaneous revenues for the 1949-50 period, was $10,958,584, 1.4 per cent over the 1948-49 figure of $10,800,007. A slight decrease in sales to industrial users was more than compensated for by the increase in domestic revenues. Operating expenses during the recent period were shown to be $5,277,860, as compared to $5,212,382, an increase of 1.3 per cent.

OPERATING INCOME
Net operating income for 1949-

50 was $5,680,724, compared to $5,593,625 for the previous year, a 1.6 per cent increase.

The total net value of the district's plant, property and equipment is now $10,255,928, an increase of $3,000,000 over the 1948-49 figure of $10,249,606, and nearly $33,000,000 greater than the valuation as of June 30, 1940.

BONDED DEBT
Breuner noted that the bonded debt of the district was reduced by $2,080,000 during the past year as a result of the annual retirement of bonds voted in 1924, 1927 and 1946.

The original indebtedness of $77,000,000 has now been reduced to $51,545,000, including matured bonds not presented for payment. Interest totaling $2,274,225 was paid during the year on the three issues which are scheduled for retirement in 1974, 1977 and 1972, respectively.

MAINS INSTALLED
Over 66 miles of water main were installed throughout the district. Of this total, improvement to the system accounted for 21 miles and replacement of worn-out or inadequate pipe exceeded 26 miles, with the remainder assigned to main extensions to serve new customers.

The taxpayers' equity in the district was increased by the total amount of $5,112,132.

Troop 204 Mothers' Tea to Honor 210's

At a special meeting last week in the Morris Hunt Slater Cabin, members of the Mothers Club of Boy Scout Troop 204 completed plans for the tea they will give next Thursday afternoon to honor the newly formed Mothers Club of Troop 210. Mrs. O. E. Schirmer, president of the group, presided.

Plans for the afternoon affair which will be held from 1 to 3 were discussed by members of the committee in charge, including Mesdames Irwin Miller, Ralph Reichert, C. R. Turner, Ralph Ong, M. H. Stanley, Harvey Williams and Lester Conklin.

A special feature of the tea will be colored movies of Troop 204 activities during the past year and a

Fire Siren at Moraga Station

In line with the policy of steady improvement in the fire-control system for the Moraga-Canyon Fire District, a new siren has been installed on the Moraga fire house. The siren will sound each day at 12 noon, and to call volunteer fire fighters when needed.

Fire Chief A. J. Baitz complimented the Moraga volunteers on their quick action in putting out three different fires, which could have been serious, along the Sacramento-Northern right-of-way.

During the recent hot dry spell a stand-by crew of from eight to 12 volunteer firemen was available at all hours. Chief Baitz is on 24-hour call. Phone number is Moraga 4421.

Luau Benefit at Jelton's Saturday

Five thousand orchids and numerous native food delicacies will arrive from Honolulu by Pan American World Airways today and tomorrow, all slated for the exotic Fall benefit affair being staged tomorrow night by Orinda Branch, Children's Hospital of the East Bay at the Vad Jelton estate in Happy Valley.

In authentic detail, the foods will carry out the typical Hawaiian luau theme, with barbecued pigs to leave the pits ready for serving with the proper ceremonial. The long tables will be decorated with island flowers. Orchids will be made into corsages for each feminine guest and will also be floated in the pool.

The entertainment program is to include island music and dancers and there is to be a water ballet put on by Athens Club swimmers.

Proceeds from the giant benefit affair will go toward caring for those children of the county whose parents are unable to pay all, or any of the medical expense at Children's Hospital of the East Bay. Mrs. Stewart Tompkins has served as chairman of arrangements for the luau. Decorations are in charge of Mrs. Stephen Jensen; tickets, Mrs. Arthur Ochen; refreshments, Mrs. Fred Goodwin; and water ballet, Mrs. James Small.

1,050 Students Start Acalanes Classes

Acalanes Union High School started the 1950-51 school year last week as 1,050 students scrambled off the district's newly purchased school buses back to class. Enrollment jumped 100 over last year. Additional late registrations are expected to push the final enrollment figure even higher.

Expanded facilities and a larger faculty were on hand to greet students. Six classrooms, a study hall, three additional administrative offices and six new teachers have been added to the school program.

Mrs. Shirley Frazier, home economics instructor; Mrs. Muriel Gray of the Spanish and English

Walnut Harvest Workers Needed

Men, women and high school age youngsters able to work part-time or full-time in the local walnut harvest are asked to register at the free farm labor office opened last week in Walnut Creek, according to W. W. Allan, farm labor manager for the California Department of Employment.

Allan stated that the walnut crop is heavy and that part-time workers can earn good money. Harvest workers should register at the Farm Labor Trailer, at East and Cole Streets, just south of the cannery in Walnut Creek. Growers desiring help may phone Walnut Creek 9736.

Reynolds Golden Fete Highlight Of Thorne Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thorne of Moraga Boulevard returned early last week by Western Pacific from a trip East. High spot of the journey was their presence at the golden wedding anniversary celebration of Mrs. Thorne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds of Indiana, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Thorne had left for Pennsylvania in early July, accompanied by her mother who had come to Lafayette three months earlier. Thorne flew East by T.W.A., arriving several days before the anniversary fete on August 30.

OVER 200 GUESTS
More than 200 guests congratulated the honored couple at receptions held during the afternoon and evening. A dinner for 60 guests was also one of the highlights of the "golden wedding day."

Mrs. Thorne, her two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Ball and Mrs. Lloyd Wymer, and other family members assisted in receiving the many visitors.

Five grandchildren of the Reynolds were also present at the event, two in the armed services being unable to attend.

After the anniversary affair, Mr. and Mrs. Thorne accompanied her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ball, on an automobile tour that included visits to Buffalo, Canada, Staunton and Gettysburg, before leaving for home.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds are well known in Lafayette area and Concord, where they have visited in the past.

Want to Get Rid of Weeds? Well, You Can Do It Now While Renovating Lawn!

By BERT WRIGHT

JUST AS IT OFFERS the very finest time for lawn care, fall is an ideal season for tending to your weed problems. This month, when you're renovating your lawn, include a weed eradication program!

Today, with the advent of improved, selective lawn weed controls, you can destroy weeds easily, safely—and completely. Not just the tops are killed but the stems and roots—the entire plant is destroyed once and for all.

HERE IS HOW you can combine fall lawn care with an effective weed control program:

1.—Dilute two tablespoons of 2-4-D weed killer in any small-mouthed gallon container.

2.—Spray entire lawn area. This dilution will effectively cover 200 square feet of ordinary lawn area.

3.—When weeds start to die, feed lawn with four pounds of plant food per 100 square feet of area. Soak lawn thoroughly.

4.—A day or two later, go over entire lawn, loosening the soil on thin areas with your rake. Rake these areas with good grass seed.

5.—Roll or tamp newly seeded areas to make certain the seed is in firm contact with the soil.

THE KEY to success with this program lies in getting started now, while weeds are in an active growing state.

Fall is nature's chosen seeding time. You can't choose a better time to build a new lawn or renovate your old lawn.

FOLLOW THESE simple steps

High Mass Opens St. Mary's Year

Traditionally celebrated at the opening of each academic year, a solemn high Mass of the Holy Ghost was sung in the St. Mary's College Chapel Monday morning.

The entire St. Mary's student body and faculty were in attendance.

Celebrant was Rev. Bernard Cummins of the Church of the Assumption, Stockton. Rev. John Shanahan of St. Catherine's Church, Burlingame, was the deacon and Rev. Kenneth Cabral of St. Bernard's Church, Tracy, sub-deacon.

Master of ceremonies was Rev. Arthur Roberto of St. Louis Bertrand's Church in Oakland.

Rev. John McCracken, assistant director of Catholic Social Service in Alameda County, delivered the sermon.

30,561 CITATIONS
Commercial vehicle citations issued by the California Highway Patrol during the first seven months of the year totaled 30,561. Commissioner Clifford E. Peterson reports.

Diamond K Sez . . .

DID THE EARLY MORNING
shower scare you last Sunday? How many of you had visions of mud puddles and water hoisted around the house again this winter?

Well, you had better start finishing the paths and walks or placing stepping stones. Then, too, why not put in some drain tile and solve your drainage problems permanently? You would be surprised how easily we can solve your problems with a little drain rock and tile.

After all, we all agree, "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

AROUND YOUR GARDEN, it is still the best time of the year to check up on your rhododendrons and camellias. We suggest cleaning the mulch away from the main stems and check for rovers. This will cut your losses next spring.

Another item to watch during this changeable weather is that your rhododendrons and camellias aren't allowed to get too dry. This is the period when their new growth is forming and one-dry day now will be very costly next spring.

"Blossom-time" Now is just right for those last feedings.

So, invest an hour or two and insure against later losses.

WE HAVE GOOD NEWS for many of our customers this week. We have just received another load of grapestakes and those of you who have been patiently waiting, come in and order yours.

While you are in the store, pick up the firewood you've been talking about. The wood is thoroughly seasoned and dried. This winter, with the demand great and conditions such as they are, we undoubtedly won't be able to offer you the quality that we are able to at this time.

For you coal users, we have just received our first carload of coal for the season.

Diablo Red Cross Outlines Its Disaster Relief Plan

Fitting into the developing disaster relief setup for the county, the Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American Red Cross has outlined its disaster relief plan.

Main points of the Red Cross plan, which will be an integral part of the over-all county procedure, are as follows, according to Col. C. J. Herman, chapter chairman:

1. This general plan is provided as a guide for the formation of subcommittees in preparation for action by assigning tasks and responsibilities of interrelating activities in any emergency requiring major relief efforts of the chapter.

REFUGEES
2. The task of the chapter is based on the occurrence of any major disaster or emergency in the San Francisco Bay Area resulting in an influx of refugees from the stricken localities requiring shelter, food, medical attention, clothing and other assistance.

3. Upon the existence of such emergency, each section of the Mt. Diablo Chapter Disaster Relief Committee will proceed at once in the duties outlined.

Feathered Folk Differ Slightly From Humans in Characteristics

Among the fascinating sights in Canyon the past several months were the birds—their actions and

A wren couple "rented" a bungalow style bird house. She was the fussy, scolding type and he the blythe singing one. Guess who did the most work building the nest.

OTHER OBSERVATIONS
Then there was the large flycatcher which reminded us of a widower with a spoiled only child. The poor parent was observed for a full week—busily darting here and there for bugs and flies to feed the lazy youngster, who for days hardly moved off his perch, but readily enough opened his large mouth when "Dad" had something to put in it.

SMALL FRY
The hummingbird acts like a small "peeping-tom," buzzing up to a window and pausing in mid air to peep in. And the curious brown towhee who can't resist trying to discover what is inside that partly open door or window, then getting panic stricken trying to find his way out.

There's the show-off type, the pompous robin who picks the tallest tree top or telephone pole to practice his evening—or morning—song. Even while seeking his victims he struts and poses.

ACCIDENTS
Birds have accidents, too, because of not looking where they are going—and we don't mean the Fillmore bird, who flies backwards because he doesn't care where he's going, but wonders where he's been. There has been many a bird neck broken because of having flown into glass window while going at top speed.

One of the most dis-like birds—the flip bluejay, for all his raucous racket, is a coward. But there is a funny story about jays. Some time ago there was quite a bit of excitement about vari-colored jays seen in Canyon, or seen locally. It was big news—important enough to bring out eminent University of California professors to observe this phenomenon of nature.

The news of the "discovery" died a quick death when it was discovered that a local resident, as a prank, had trapped a number of jays, dyed them different colors, then released them to astound local residents.

Some Swam at Picnic Held by Homeland Group

The Lafayette Homelands picnic was held last Saturday in the private area of Mitchell Canyon Park. In spite of the cool weather, 125 residents gathered for the afternoon.

Football, volley ball and softball attracted some, while a few of the hardy tried the swimming pool. Success of the event was attributed largely to the efforts of Virginia and Jack Jaques, who organized the affair. They were assisted by the wives of the directors of the Lafayette Homelands Association. Special thanks were also given Bob Hughes, who secured the athletic equipment and supervised children's games.

Bill Hampton at Cal Polytechnic

Bill Hampton, June graduate of Acalanes High School, is now a freshman student at California Polytechnic School in San Luis Obispo. Bill, who attended the National Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge this summer, spent the rest of his vacation visiting relatives in Nebraska. He is the son of Seth Blakeman of St. Mary's Road.

Residences Top Lafayette Area Building Permits

Lafayette's building permit list for the week ending September 8 was headed by an okay on construction of six residences and garages issued to owner and builder H. H. Andrews, Lafayette. The units, to be located in St. Mary's Estates, were estimated to cost $7,980 each.

Two other residence and garage building applications and one for a residence and carport were also granted, as follows: $5,996, Lafayette Terrace, Thompson and Happy Valley Glen opposite Lot 55-56, owner and builder, J. E. Denman, Lafayette; $7,770, No. 1 Fairholm Court and Reliez Valley Road, Fairholm subdivision, owner and builder, E. Mailho of Lafayette; $20,706, Garrett Tract, Lot 8, Vallejo Court and Camino Vallecito, owner and builder, Howard L. Negley, Lafayette.

Additional permits were granted in this area as follows: residence, $6,600, Lafayette Homelands, Lot 13 Solano Drive, owner C. E. Stevens, builder, Blake Construction Company, Orinda; residence addition, $11,000, Springhill Road, Brown Drive opposite Hoskins property, owner, M. Williams, builder, Lawrence S. Moffett, Walnut Creek.

Private garage, $1,080, Lot 17 north 30 feet of 16 Los Palos and Glenside Estates, owner and builder, C. C. Nimmo, sign, Lot 1, Blvd. 3, 3570 Mt. Diablo Boulevard and Oakland, owner, A. L. Studebaker, and builder, Frank E. Sellers, Walnut Creek.

Permission for construction of a retail store building, $5,400, was granted owner and builder E. E. Ellis, Lafayette, to be erected at Lot 1, Mt. Diablo Boulevard and Golden Gate Way, Lafayette Homelands.

Channing Jones' Mother Leaves

Mrs. Channing Jones, Sr., left September 15 for her Columbus, Ohio, home. For four weeks she was with her son's family on Mari- anne Drive.

The biggest part of her visit consisted of caring for her grandchildren, Leslie and "Bo," while the Jr. Jones were in England. Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Jr., returned recently.

Dads Club Plans Year's Schedule

Lafayette Dads' Club held its first board of directors meeting of the 1950-51 term at the Lafayette School library Monday evening to plan the year's schedule.

First membership session of the Dad's Club is to be held at Town Hall on October 3, with the former members and new additions to the organization invited to attend. The Special featured meetings discussed for the coming year's program include baseball night, sportsmen's night, a session dedicated to each of the three elementary schools in the district, Lafayette, Vallejo and Montecito, travel night and others.

"Dusty" Rhodes heads the Lafayette Dads' Club as president for the new term. Other officers and committeemen are: Jack Jaques, vice president; Elliot Hartman, treasurer; Merv Ortez, secretary; Don Edwards, membership; Ray Strouble, publicity; Tony Verante, refreshments; Ken Bone, chairman of Lafayette Club Pack 38 committee. Two more chairmanships, entertainment and program, remain to be filled.

Plans are underway for the annual membership drive, with lists of school-age children invited to join the club.

Sermon Topic Is 'Friend or Foe'

"Death—Friend or Foe" will be Pastor Luther Berven's sermon subject at the 10:45 a.m. service at Our Savior's Lutheran Church on Tuesday. The text, Luke 7:10-17 deals with Jesus' raising of the widow Nain's son from the dead.

At the Junior Service at 9:30 a.m. Pastor Berven will begin a series of sermonettes on the Ten Commandments. This Junior Service is designed particularly for Sunday School pupils and their parents. The Sunday School classes and the adult discussion group meet immediately after the Junior Service.

Choir practice has been resumed and is being held regularly every Thursday evening at 8. Franklin Thompson of Walnut Creek is the director.

Sunday School at Mission Covenant Has Full Program

A busy program is planned for the Sunday School of the Lafayette Mission Covenant Sunday School for the next three weeks.

This Sunday will be promotion day. Each regular attendant among the children and young people will be awarded either a diploma or a certificate of merit.

The following Sunday the pupils will have their regular class instruction in their new grades, and as many of the Sunday School teachers as possible will make as many calls as possible during the afternoon.

On October 8 the Sunday School will celebrate Rally Day. This day will be in the midst of the October 5-11 series of special meetings with Evangelist Edwin S. Johnson of Seattle.

During this same period Pastor Clifford L. Nixon will be speaking at both morning and evening services, in the morning continuing a series of devotional Bible studies on the book of Ephesians and in the evening speaking on the last words of Christ.

1,500 Enrolled At West Campus
Beginning its second semester of operation, Contra Costa Junior College West Campus in Richmond opened its doors Monday morning for the first day of classes. Some 1,500 students had been registered for both occupational training classes and general education college courses.
Under the leadership of Director John H. Porterfield, the college attracted several hundred students for its first semester last spring.
George Paul, dean of student personnel, said that a limited number of late registrations could still be taken this week.

Books on Korea Available at Library
"What kind of a country is Korea?" "Who are the Koreans?" "What is the political background?" are questions often asked in local libraries. To point out some of Contra Costa County Library's book and magazine material about this hitherto little known country, a reading list in book-mark size has been prepared at county library headquarters in Martinez.
Copies of these bookmarks are available for free distribution in all branch libraries. "Korea Today," a timely book on Korean history, developments since 1945, the economic and political situation, by McCune; "The Grass Root," by Kang; "Irina and the Hermit, My Life in Korea," by Materi; "The Rise of Russia in Asia," by Dalling, are some of the books mentioned. Magazine articles include "Roaming Korea South of the Iron Curtain" in National Geographic, June 1950; "Is Radiant Heating Modern?" in Popular Mechanics, September 1949; and "How It Feels to Be a Korean" in United Nations World, May, 1948.

Moraga Valley Meeting Tonight
Reports on water and sewer developments of the area will be presented at tonight's monthly meeting of the Moraga Valley Community Club, Inc., at the Moraga Grammar School, according to President Joe Hansen. The meeting will start at 8 p.m.
Over 200 attended the club's first family picnic at St. Mary's picnic grounds last Sunday. A well-organized but informal program, including games for the youngsters, kept the crowd happy throughout the event. The committee in charge of the event included Tom Carroll, C. W. Lance, Sam Carr and Harry Rohrer.

Moraga Minute Men-The Gaels
What can be expected of the St. Mary's Gaels—the "Moraga Minute Men"—this season was explained by Coach Joseph Ruetz to more than 500 alumni and well-wishers attending the annual Gael "Kickoff Banquet" Monday evening at the Sir Francis Drake Hotel in San Francisco.
Ruetz's new head man at St. Mary's explained why he has labeled his team the "Moraga Minute Men," his answer to the platoon system and to charges by some that small schools should not attempt to compete with teams representing the larger universities. The Gaels, never known to play "soft" schedules, have carded even more formidable slates for the next few seasons.

Pack 38 Meets Tonight; Guests Of Oaks on 30th

Dogs Vie in Race For Mothers Club

Orinda Mothers' Club Membership Drive started Monday and will continue for two weeks. The first two days saw a good response and much excitement among the children, who are all striving for 100 per cent membership.

The dog "race track" was the center of interest as returns started coming in. Each class is represented by a particular dog, who forges ahead as each child returns his envelope with dues. Once around the track means 100 per cent.

Next week the results will be published, the class first reaching 100 per cent memberships receiving $5 and all others reaching that goal receiving $3.

Gilmore Family Will Move Here

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Gilmore of Oakland have recently purchased a home at 9 Northwood Court and will be moving to Orinda shortly after the first of October. They have a small daughter, Carol.

Dr. Gilmore is a professor of South American history and he and Mrs. Gilmore have returned recently to the Bay Area after Dr. Gilmore taught for a semester at the University of Guadalajara, Mexico. Mrs. Gilmore is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Baxter of Oakland. Both she and Dr. Gilmore are graduates of the University of California and have many friends in this area.

From Kaneohe to Moraga Boulevard

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Skewis and daughter Anne have moved to Moraga Boulevard after 2 1/2 years in Hawaii. Moraga Boulevard is their first permanent home since they returned to the States in April of this year.

The Skewis' lived in Orinda before going to Hawaii and chose Lafayette as their future home so Anne can attend Acalanes High.

Hawaii was an interesting experience for the Skewis'. Mrs. Skewis said things were very much the same in the fast growing town of Kaneohe as in one of our small towns.

The most progressive of all organizations and the most impressive was the Outdoor Circle Organization, to which she belonged in Kaneohe. It is an educational group working to beautify the community. There is a group in every community throughout Hawaii.

This group works closely with the rural agricultural offices, having a cutting committee, planting committee, clean up committee, etc.

The organization has ruled out any unsightly displays such as billboards and has really built up a community appreciation feeling.

Clipper Club's Members Tell of Vacation Jaunts

With vacation trips over and Orindans back at home again, meetings as usual can again be expected. One of the first of these was the Clipper Club gathering recently at the El Toyonal home of Marie and Ted Schilling. It was a "potluck" affair enjoyed in an attractive outdoor setting.

At the meeting which followed Skipper Ken Beaman presided, calling upon various ones to outline high spots of their vacation sojourns. Included were the experiences of Jane and Pete Englesman, Lucy and Jim Hupp, Edith and Horace Breed, Elizabeth and Kirk Miles, Lillian and Alfred Styles.

Colored slides illustrated the eastern trip of Gertrude and John Ogden. Then Rev. Fred Morrow took the group on a camping and hiking trip into the Sierra by way of his colored slides. Ruth and Everett Howe, who toured the Northwest, also had pictures of their trip.

During the short business meeting it was announced that a name for the "younger" Clipper group had been requested. One name suggested was that of "Clipper Clippings."

Next meeting of the Clipper Club will be held on Friday evening, October 13, when School District Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff will speak.

Meet Aufra, Dog Of War and Peace

The man and the dog who made the first war dog patrol under fire in Europe in World War II will take part in an obedience-training demonstration Sunday night at the Walnut Festival in Walnut Creek. This exhibition will start at 7 p.m. Joe Simpson of Lafayette, who spent four years in the K-9 Corps, will direct members of the Mt. Diablo Dog Training Club in a drill-demonstration by their obedience dogs.

Simpson will also show "attack" work with Aufra, the German shepherd which he worked with under fire during his two years overseas, in combat in Italy. Showing that her war service and attack training have not made Aufra vicious, Simpson will work her in "Companion Dog" obedience with eight members of the local dog training club, two of them children. They include Mrs. Kay Wahl, Lafayette, with her cocker, Slippery Hills Sally Firth, and Geoff Wahl of Lafayette school with his English cocker Agelious Agile Agnes.

PTA District Confab Monday in Centerville

"Modern Methods for Developing Inner Security" will be the theme of the PTA District Conference Monday in Centerville. The California Congress of Parents and Teachers, at their first fall meeting on Monday at the Washington Union High School in Centerville.

'Dusty' Rhodes Honored at Party

A surprise "Life begins at Forty" party really surprised Dusty (Forrest L.) Rhodes recently. Friends and neighbors met at the Robert Coles residence on Los Palos Drive and arrived en masse at the Rhodes home singing "Happy Birthday to You."

Rhodes' parents, the C. A. Rhodes, were present to see the surprise and enjoy the fun, as were Mr. and Mrs. Lou Fekete, Charles Neuman, Jr., Adolph Markstein, Dr. and Mrs. Irwin Bornholt, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Huff, Paul Hein, Louis Mancini, Robert Coles, Paul Wilson and the A. W. Bailey, Jr.

Besides the potluck supper which the guests brought, there were humorous presents which, according to the guests, were the high point of the evening and caused many an aching face and side from the hilarity they invoked.

After the dinner, Mrs. Rhodes brought in the cake, which with its 40 candles was sufficient light to read by. After the cake and ice cream the group settled down to playing the old-fashioned variety of parlor games.

"Dusty" was doubly pleased, he claimed, because he thought his summer fun had run out after their extensive trip east to pick up a car. They left early last month, by Western Pacific's Zephyr Diner to Detroit, picked up their car and made a leisurely swing around the Great Lakes, then to Chicago and Denver, where they visited with the Neil Drinkward family, former residents of Glenside.

The children especially enjoyed their visit with their uncle in the eastern part of Nevada, where they went sage-hen hunting, garnet hunting, went through the Lehman Caves and had plenty of horseback riding in the real cowboy country.

Walter Little's Father Succumbs

Funeral services for Walter Colton Little, Sr., father of Walter C. Little, Jr., of 4th Street, were held Sunday afternoon from the chapel of Grant D. Miller Mortuaries, Inc., in Oakland. Little, Sr., died Saturday in an Oakland hospital after an illness of several months.

A pioneer California resident, Little was born in Monterey. His parents were early settlers, arriving in California in the 1840's after a dangerous trip around Cape Horn. Serving as city engineer for Monterey and Pacific Grove, Little moved to Oakland in 1908, where he began a career as a civil engineer. He lived on Alcatraz Avenue, Oakland.

Besides the son residing in Lafayette, he is survived by another son, A. E. Little, assistant cashier of the Anglo-California Bank in Oakland, and a daughter, Miss Anita Little of Oakland.

Hazel's Hat Shop In New Quarters

Hazel's Hat Shop, owned by Hazel Courtney, reopened in its new quarters in the Stanley Building, next to the Lafayette post office, on Wednesday, following completion of this section of the new structure.

The attractive window display of smart hats is a suitable and very tempting introduction to the modern decor of the shop interior. Visitors to the flower-decked shop on opening day were presented with gifts for the occasion.

Drive very carefully—the life you save may be your own.

How to Eat Cake And Have It, Too

Geoffrey Hayes' third birthday on September 15 was the usual cake and ice cream celebration, except for the fact that there might have been more cake and ice cream on the face hands and floor than usual. Three-year-olds like to eat their cake and have some left, too. Toy-throwing was the best game; they all knew how to play it.

Geoffrey's guests who came to his home on Upper Happy Valley Road were Steve Scott, Duffy Tussing, Bobbie Nipkow, Kim Cardin, Nancy Snow, Mary Poting and Kathy Hayes.
